BBC Women slam report into pay gap

WOMEN working at the BBC have slammed the Corporation's report into pay inequality after it found no evidence of gender bias – despite auditors finding a 6.8 per cent difference in salaries between male and female stars.

Accountancy firm PwC, which produced the report, said the broadcaster's approach to setting pay had been 'far from perfect' and 'anomalies' needed addressing.

However it blamed this on a 'lack of clarity and openness' and financial constraints in the company over the last decade, rather than gender bias.

BBC Women – which includes presenters such as Jane Garvey, Mishal Husain and Victoria Derbyshire (above) – has already said they have 'no confidence' in the review and that they had been 'excluded from the process'.

Hatton Garden heist gang helper fined

A PLUMBER who helped the Hatton Garden raiders has been fined £367.50 for his "general criminal conduct".

Hugh Doyle, from Enfield, north London, was convicted in January 2016 for providing safe access to a yard where stolen property from the multi million-pound jewellery raid could be moved between vehicles, Judge Christopher Kinch QC said.

The judge said it was agreed that Doyle had not received any benefit, payment or reward – but he had been deemed to have a "criminal lifestyle".

But May shrugs off Whitehall's gloomy report that Brexit is going to hit Britain WHATEVER the deal

THERESA May has sought to play down the leak of the latest Brexit analysis after a Whitehall study concluded Britain would be worse off whatever deal is struck with Brussels.

By COLIN HURST news@sundaysport.co.uk

The Prime Minister told the weekly meeting of Cabinet that the paper represented "initial work" by officials which had not been signed off by ministers.

She said the document had not looked at the impact on the economy if the Government achieves the sort of "bespoke" trading agreement with the EU it is seeking.

The leak of the economic impact analysis, drawn up for the Department for Exiting the EU, triggered renewed demands from opposition parties to release the full details.

The document, seen by the BuzzFeed News website, concluded economic growth would be lower under a range of potential scenarios.

Even if the UK was able to negotiate a comprehensive free trade agreement, it estimates growth would be down 5% over the next 15 years.

That would rise to 8% if Britain left without a deal and forced to fall back on World Trade Organisation rules.

Bespoke

Alternatively, if the UK were to retain access to the single market through membership of the European Economic Area, the loss would be just 2%.

A No 10 spokesman said: "The Prime Minister noted media coverage of a report purporting to show the impact of Britain leaving EU.

"The PM said this was initial work, not approved by ministers, which only considers off-the-shelf scenarios.

"No analysis was made of the bespoke agreement we seek as a matter of Government policy."

But opposition parties said the public were entitled to know the true cost of leaving the EU.

Matthew Pennycook, Labour shadow Brexit minister, said: "Ministers should publish this information immediately and allow for a full debate in Parliament about its implications."

TEN Westerners arrested in Cambodia for allegedly posting photos online which showed them engaged in sexually suggestive dancing should be expelled from the country for causing offence to Cambodian morality, rather than jailed, one of their lawyers has said.

The 10 – five of whom were from the UK – were arrested when police raided a party at a rented villa in the north-western town of Siem Reap and found people "dancing pornographically" at an event organisers called a pub crawl.

Among the eight men and two women arrested were Britons Vincent Harley, Robert Hook, 35, Daniel Richard Leeming Jones, 30, Thomas Alexander Jeffries, 22, Billy Stevens, 21, and Paul Francis Harris, 32.

Also detained were Dutchman Job Robertus van der Wel, 22, Canadians Jessica Drolet, 25, and Eden Koazoleas, 19, along with Norwegian David Nikolaus Aleksandr Ballovarre, 22, and 32-year-old New Zealander Paul Martin Brasch.

The detainees face up to a year in prison if convicted.

Don't call me Ant's Scarlett woman!

I'M NO CHEAT: Scarlett

JUNGLE QUEEN'S FURY AT RUMOURS

TELLY personality Scarlett Moffatt is DEVASTATED about gossip linking her to presenter Ant McPartlin.

Rumours surfaced that Scarlett, 27, and Ant, 42, were more than friends just two weeks after he announced he was divorcing his wife Lisa Armstrong, 41 (right).

But Ant's not the only male pal Scarlett has been romantically linked with – as TOWIE's James 'Arg' Argent, 30, and Dancing On Ice's Kem Cetinay, 21, are both alleged to have been dating the beauty.

Cruel

However, the 2016 I'm A Celebrity... Get Me Out Of Here! winner has grown tired of the constant gossiping and is furious that these rumours keep surfacing about her private life.

A source revealed: "Scarlett's devastated. She's worked hard for her dream career, but is now discovering the cruel side of fame and it's taking its toll.

"She wants people to focus on her work. She and Ant really clicked when they met, but it's purely platonic.

"She knows it must be difficult for Lisa to see reports linking the two of them.

"She's furious at the implication that she's cheating with Ant and fears all the gossip about her rumoured men will ruin her reputation too."

STRICTLY Come Dancing star Debbie McGee has revealed she's the latest female joining the Loose Women panel.

Debbie (above), 59, confirmed she's part of the ITV shake-up of the panel, which is set to introduce a group of fresh faces to its daytime show.

TRIBUTE: Current West Brom team

So long, Cyrille

MORE than 400 West Brom fans, staff and players turned out at the club's Hawthorns stadium to bid a fond farewell to former England and Baggies striker Cyrille Regis.

Regis, who scored 112 goals in 297 appearances for WBA, died suddenly on January 14, aged 59.

The former Albion, Coventry, Aston Villa and Wolves striker had a private family funeral yesterday morning.

The Baggies then held a public service for the ex-England international and footballing pioneer, who is recognised as paving the way for a generation of black players.

Blessed

Carlton Palmer, Ron Atkinson, John Barnes, Les Ferdinand, Chris Hughton, Steve Bull, Brendon Batson and singer Beverley Knight all came to pay their respects, with 1800 fans in attendance.

Former team-mate Batson said: "We played at a time when black players endured vile abuse but Cyrille never lost his cool, nor was he ever intimidated. It motivated him to play even better.

"How could anyone think they could intimidate the big man? You couldn't. We are blessed to have known him. Nice one Cyrille, nice one son."

Trial set over double killing

A MAN is to stand trial in the summer for a double murder more than a decade ago.

Gonzalo Andres Gomez Remolina, 40, is accused of killing Colombian Carlos Ayala-Cormona, 28, and Ruben Furente, 30, of Spain.

The victims were found with stab wounds at an address in Clapham, south-west London, on June 5, 2007, and died in hospital.

The defendant, who was recently extradited from Mexico, appeared at the Old Bailey via video links from Wormwood Scrubs prison.

He spoke only to confirm his name, date of birth and that he was originally from Bogota in Colombia.

Judge Philip Katz QC fixed a three-week trial for July 9 with an earlier plea hearing on April 17.

The defendant was remanded into custody.

HOMELESS ARENA BOMBING THIEF GETS 4 YEARS

BANGED UP: Thief Parker robbed injured victims

He stole from victims

By DAVE HIGGENS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

THE homeless man who stole from victims of the Manchester Arena bombing has been jailed.

Chris Parker claimed to have helped some of those injured in the attack and was initially hailed a hero, with more than £50,000 being raised by the public to help the rough sleeper.

But CCTV recovered by police showed him wandering the foyer of the arena amid the dying and injured, stealing from victims.

The 33-year-old admitted at a hearing at Manchester Crown Court last month to stealing a purse and a mobile phone from two victims.

Yesterday he was jailed at the same court for four years and three months for two counts of theft and one count of fraud.

Judge David Hernandez told Parker: "You were not the hero you pretended to be, you were just a common thief.

"It is hard to contemplate a more reprehensible set of circumstances."

Salman Abedi's suicide bombing killed 22 people and left scores injured on May 22 last year.

Parker was caught on camera leaning over the body of injured survivor Pauline Healey to steal her purse as her 14-year-old grandaughter Sorrell Leczkowski lay dying nearby.

He also snatched the mobile phone of a teenager and within hours was using Mrs Healey's bank cards at a local McDonald's.

He will not receive the money raised for him through the public appeal on GoFundMe. It will instead go back to the donors.

Five charged after man's stab murder

FIVE people have been charged with the murder of a 25-year-old man who was stabbed to death.

Armed police carried out searches following the death of Richard Hardy (above) in Farnborough, Hants, on Friday.

The five men charged are Leroy Bosha, 26, Luther Archibald, 31, Hashim Siddique, 19, and Qasan Siddique, 22, all of Farnborough, and Omar Goodridge, 20, of Portsmouth.

They are all due to appear at Basingstoke Magistrates' Court.

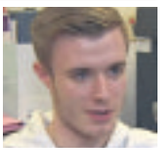

The victim's family said in a statement: "Richard was a much-loved son and brother who will be massively missed by many. Our hearts are broken."

A Hampshire police spokesman confirmed that a post-mortem examination revealed that Mr Hardy died as a result of multiple stab wounds.

A 24-year-old man from Farnborough has been released from custody but remains under investigation.

Cops say sorry to rape case student

A STUDENT accused of rape has received an apology from police and prosecutors after a review into his collapsed trial found that messages undermining the case against him had been missed.

Liam Allan (above), 22, spent almost two years on bail ahead of a trial which was halted at Croydon Crown Court in December.

More than 57,000 messages were recovered from the complainant's phone, but only some were served in evidence.

Commander Richard Smith, of the Metropolitan Police, said: "Mr Allan received a personal apology for the errors that were made."

'THERE WAS A BIT OF ROASTING GOING ON LAST NIGHT, FELLAS'

What rugby international Olding wrote after players 'raped girl', court told

LEWD MESSAGE: Jackson at court and (left) in action for Ireland

OLDING: 'We're top shaggers'

'EXPOSED HIMSELF': McIlroy

TWO rugby players on trial for rape allegedly boasted about their sexual activity on WhatsApp, a court has been told.

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Stuart Olding, 24, and Paddy Jackson, 26, are accused of raping the same woman at a property in south Belfast in June 2016.

Jackson faces a further charge of sexual assault.

Both men – who play for Ulster and are Ireland internationals – strenuously deny the charges.

Details of mobile phone communications were given to the jury of nine men and three women during the opening day of the high-profile trial at Belfast Crown Court.

The court heard that Olding allegedly wrote on WhatsApp "We are all top shaggers" and "There was a bit of spit roasting going on last night fellas."

He later added: "It was like a merry-go-around at a carnival."

It is also alleged that Jackson replied on the same WhatsApp messaging service: "There was a lot of spit."

The case, which has been scheduled to last for five weeks, is being heard before Judge Patricia Smyth.

Two other men have also been charged in connection with the alleged incident on June 28, 2016.

Blane McIlroy, 26, from Ballydollaghan, Belfast, is accused of one count of exposure.

Party

Rory Harrison, 25, from Belfast, is charged with perverting the course of justice and withholding information.

In his opening statement, prosecutor Toby Hedworth QC said: "This case, say the prosecution, concerns allegations of serious sexual misconduct by the first three defendants and attempts by their friend, the fourth defendant, to cover up their conduct.

"It involves a young woman going to an after party with other females at the home of a well-known sportsman, Patrick Jackson, the first defendant.

"He was accompanied by the remaining defendants, who were all close friends of his.

"The night ended, we say, with the first two defendants engaging in sexual activity with that young woman against her wishes, as they well knew or as they simply were not interested in considering. The third was hoping to join in."

Mr Hedworth warned jurors against applying stereotypical images of those involved.

He said: "As this case concerns a young woman going to an after party with young sportsmen, there is the danger that stereotypical views are taken of what such a complainant should expect.

"Equally, there may be stereotypical views of the behaviour of young men, particularly when in drink and with their friends."

All four defendants, who arrived at court separately, sat alongside each other in the dock.

They listened intently but gave little reaction as graphic details of the alleged attack were outlined.

Mr Hedworth said: "It is alleged that the young woman in question was vaginally raped and sexually assaulted by way of digital penetration by the first defendant Paddy Jackson and that she was orally raped by his friend, another professional rugby player, Stuart Olding.

"Further, that their friend Blane McIlroy, who was keen to have sexual activity with her as well, intentionally exposed himself to her. Effectively, this group of friends were keen to have sexual activity with this young woman, regardless of whether or not she was prepared to do so.

"When she was able to escape from what was being done to her, the fourth defendant, Rory Harrison, appeared to give her help and support.

"But in the event, it turned out, we suggest, that his true loyalty was to his friends and what they had done."

All four defendants have pleaded not guilty and are on bail.

JORGIE: MY OUTDOOR SEX ON A TRAMPOLINE!

By BECCA STUBBS becca@sundaysport.co.uk

SOAP star stunna Jorgie Porter has confessed to SHAGGING on top of an outdoor trampoline.

Jorgie, 30, revealed her X-rated secret while being quizzed on the red carpet at the National Television Awards.

And the pint-sized beauty definitely didn't hold back when it came to spilling the beans on her naughty bouncy bonk.

When asked what the naughtiest thing she'd ever done was, Jorgie wasted no time in 'fessing up to her saucy secret.

She said: "Probably had sex on an outdoor trampoline that wasn't mine."

Kinky

It's not the first time blonde bombshell Jorgie has spoken about her kinky sex life.

While in the I'm A Celebrity... Get Me Out Of Here! jungle, she spoke to her campmates about her shagging habits.

Sat around the fire in the Australian camp, Jorgie was asked whether she liked it 'hard and fast' or 'soft and slow'.

After a short pause to think about it, she responded with the latter and then confirmed to viewers she preferred a soft and slow shag.

They then asked the former Hollyoaks babe whether she enjoyed morning sex or an evening romp more.

Cheekily, Jorgie replied 'all-time sex' – leaving fans all hot under the collar at her saucy outbursts and sexy confessional.

Despite her kinky side, Jorgie is still single.

And she failed to find love on E4's Celebs Go Dating when she appeared on the show last year.

However, she was spotted snogging a mystery fella in Hawaii last November and the couple looked very close indeed.

The amount of damages was not revealed at the hearing before Mr Justice Mann yesterday.

Corrie Rana wants to take Kate up the aisle

BHAVNA Limbachia wants her Coronation Street character's lesbian romance storyline to end with a WEDDING.

Fans have seen her character Rana and Kate Connor (Faye Brookes) fall for each other in dramatic scenes on the ITV soap.

Their secret is now coming out and their future is uncertain, but Bhavna said she would love to see the pair tie the knot.

Pressure

"It will be interesting to see how it develops once the whole story is out in the open," she said.

"The reaction of Rana's family is going to play a huge factor in whether Kate and Rana can ever be together.

By WENDY THOMAS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

"I hope they can, I'd love to see a Kana wedding!"

Both actresses feel pressure to do justice to the story and be "a voice" for people in similar situations.

Bhavna said it was vital for Rana to come clean about the relationship.

"We do owe it to those girls for Rana to come clean about who she is, it is a huge responsibility and it needed to come out," she said.

"There are so many people who don't feel they are able to come out and hopefully this will encourage conversations in households within every community and let some people feel able to be honest about who they are."

Fake eyeballs on pitch – 2 charged

TWO men have been charged after FAKE EYEBALLS were thrown onto the pitch during a football match involving a player with one eye.

Police investigated the incident at the game between Dunfermline Athletic and Falkirk on January 2, in which Dean Shiels was playing.

The Northern Irishman had his right eye removed in 2006 after losing sight in that eye in a domestic accident when he was eight years old.

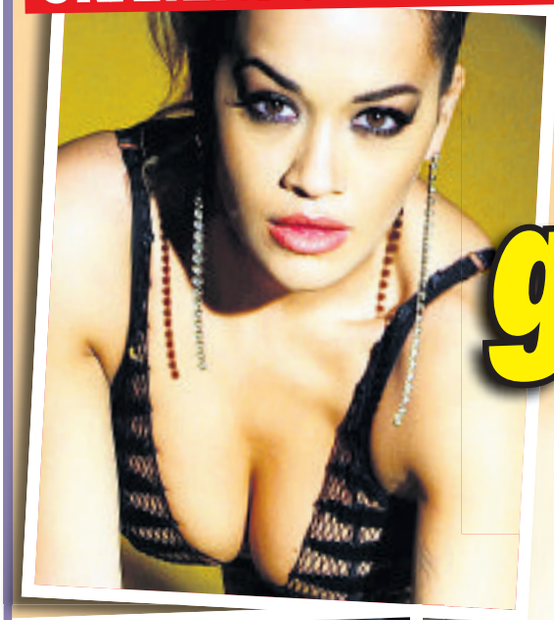

The Dunfermline midfielder has made 14 international appearances for Northern Ireland.

Police said two men, aged 20 and 21, have been charged under the Offensive Behaviour at Football and Threatening Communications (Scotland) Act and will now be reported to the Procurator Fiscal.

POP babe Rita Ora dared to bare in her thigh-high dress at the Annual Grammy Awards over the weekend.

This week's cover star, Rita, 27, flashed a little more than she bargained for as her soaring split in her black dress teased with a glimpse of her bottom as well as her never-ending pins.

Sexy

However, it's not the first time blonde beauty Rita has exposed herself – in fact she's got form for flashing the flesh.

Despite not picking up a Grammy award herself, Rita's shown plenty of times before that she's got two great gongs.

From sexy social media snaps displaying her thong-clad derriere to pics of her sweater-stretching norks, Rita's shown us everything.

Here's the very best sexed-up shots of topless totty Rita…

Denise: At last I'm being paid to flash boobs!

FORMER soap star Denise Welch is STRIPPING OFF on stage as she's bagged a role in the naked play Calendar Girls.

Denise, 59, will be joining TV presenter Fern Britton, 60, in the raunchy musical, which sees women bare all to make a charity calendar.

Blonde beauty Denise will be getting her kit off to play the character of Celia, while Fern has landed the role of Marie.

Denise (above) famously flashed her boobs when she appeared on Celebrity Big Brother back in 2012 and now says she's thrilled to be finally getting paid to strip.

Talking about her new job, Denise said: "I've done a lot of nude for free, but not actually being paid for it! It's very freeing and I think it's great timing."

The musical, written by Tim Firth and Take That star Gary Barlow, will head out across the UK on tour this August.

TELLY chef Jamie Oliver has called for legislation to ban the sale of energy drinks to children after supermarkets introduced their own age limits on the high caffeine and sugar products.

Jamie (above) tweeted: "The supermarkets are showing real leadership, we now need the government to step up and introduce legislation which completely bans the sale of energy drinks to children.

"If the energy drink industry is literally telling us their products are 'not recommended for children' on the cans, why can kids as young as 10 buy them whenever they want?"

Kim likes to spice things up for hubby Kanye

REALITY TV star Kim Kardashian is spicing up her SEX LIFE and these jaw-dropping topless snaps could be part of it.

Despite having only given birth to their third child, Chicago, via surrogate, Kim, 37, seems keen to keep husband Kanye West, 40, firmly focused on her.

A source said: "It's all about spicing things with Kanye. Kim also went on a massive lingerie shopping spree at La Perla.

"She knows how visual Kanye is, so she's putting in a big effort to always look as hot as possible for him."

Kim's been busy in the bedroom and can't stop posting X-rated snaps of herself on her social media channels.

She posed topless and wore a miniscule white thong for an eye-popping photo which she uploaded earlier this week.

In the series of raunchy selfies, Kim can be seen posing in a variety of positions wearing a string thong which does nothing to cover her famous bottom.

Although if she looks like this behind closed doors, we bet Kanye can't keep his hands of his gorgeous wife.

HOLLYWOOD STAR ROSE McGOWAN:

'Harvey w*nked himself off as he gave me oral in hot tub'

BRAVE: Rose has spoken out about Weinstein (below)

THE actress who helped bring down Hollywood movie mogul Harvey Weinstein has told how he tossed himself off to orgasm while performing oral sex on her in a hot tub.

The incident is recorded in Rose McGowan's new memoir Brave, which reveals her tough upbringing and even tougher adulthood.

She reveals in detail what allegedly happened between her and Weinstein at the 1997 Sundance Film Festival.

Disgraced

Rose, 44, wrote that she had an appointment with Weinstein but arrived to learn that her breakfast meeting had been moved to his hotel suite.

Once she got there, she claims that Weinstein tore off her clothing, made her sit on the edge of the Jacuzzi in his room and proceeded to perform oral sex on the actress while masturbating himself to completion.

Soon after, Rose received a $100,000 settlement from the now disgraced mogul.

Writing in her book about the moments before the alleged assault, she said: "'I froze, like a statue."

She claims Weinstein proceeded to strip naked and directed her towards the Jacuzzi while ripping off her clothes.

She details how the encounter ended that day at the Stein Eriksen Lodge in Deer Valley, Utah, writing: "He moans loudly. Through my tears I see his semen floating on top of the bubbles."

Orgasm

Rose's alleged attack was remarkably similar to the one Asia Argento claims she endured at the Cannes Film Festival just a few months later in 1997, and like Asia, Rose writes that she faked having an orgasm to hurry the ending.

She says she found little support in the time after the alleged assault, saying her lawyer told her no-one would believe her in court, while others "counselled me to see it as something that would help my career in the long run".

But it did not help, with the actress's career reaching its height in 1999 with cult classic Jawbreaker before she was relegated to TV, where she starred in the highly profitable but "deadening" drama series Charmed.

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Her situation was further complicated by Weinstein's attacks on her to executives at other studios, she claims.

"It seemed like every creep in Hollywood knew about my most vulnerable and violated moment," she writes, "and I was the one who was punished for it."

The New York Times reported last year about Rose receiving the cash in the wake of the incident.

She was not asked to sign a non-disclosure agreement, but publicly threw caution to the wind last November by alleging on Twitter that Weinstein was her rapist.

Rose is now preparing for the premiere of her new E! reality show on Tuesday, Citizen Rose.

A spokesman for Weinstein said that the producer "denies Ms McGowan's allegations of non-consensual sexual contact".

'DI CANIO SHOVE' REF DEAD AT 64

BATTLE: Paul Alcock

FALL GUY: Di Canio storms off after shoving referee Paul

THE football referee infamously pushed to the floor by former Sheffield Wednesday player Paolo Di Canio has died after losing his battle with cancer.

Paul Alcock memorably stumbled back after being shoved by firebrand Di Canio when he showed him a red card.

Alcock, 64, passed away at Maidstone Hospital in Kent just two years after being diagnosed with the disease.

The illness forced the ref's weight to drop dramatically. He shed three stone in just 24 days while undergoing an intensive period of chemotherapy and radiotherapy.

He will however forever be remembered by footy fans for the fall he took following Di Canio's push in 1998.

Cancer kills Paul

Doddle

The Italian had been in English football for just one season following a £4.2million from Celtic when he raised both hands to Alcock's chest.

Still holding the red card, Alcock took several steps backwards before eventually hitting the turf at Hillsborough.

He said recently: "I didn't feign my fall. I was off-balance"

Di Canio then turned away and stormed off after being given his marching orders in the match against Arsenal.

Talking about his cancer battle last year, Alcock said: "Dealing with Di Canio was a doddle compared with this."

Risk of death from e-ciggies

SMOKE from e-cigarettes damages DNA and can increase the risk of cancer and heart disease, scientists have warned.

The battery-driven devices, which deliver an instant nicotine "hit" without burning tobacco, have been promoted as a safer alternative to fags.

But findings from a new study suggest they are far from harmless, and could pose a serious health risk.

In lab tests, mice exposed to e-cig smoke had higher levels of DNA damage.

Porn clip shown during film screening at school

PARENTS were "disgusted" after pupils were accidentally shown pornography during a screening of kids' movie Paddington 2.

Nine and 10-year-olds in Year 5 were watching the film during 'Golden Time' when the wholly inappropriate footage popped up on screen.

It was believed the clip came up as the film – which only opened in cinemas in November last year – was being streamed from the web.

The school later sent a letter to parents and carers saying a "failure in our filters" led to the children seeing the smut.

A parent, who wished to remain anonymous, said: "I was absolutely disgusted.You do not expect to have it in a school, you try your best to prevent it at home.

FAILURE: School blamed filters

Many kids can be traumatised."

But some parents of kids at Croft Academy in Walsall said they were unhappy with the way they were told about the incident and thought there should have been a text message sent out to arrange a meeting.

One said: "We were all disgusted considering the children had to tell us. Parents are annoyed we were made aware by giving a letter to the Year Five students, who can read, so it is not only wrong to see it but they have to repeat it."

Sex claim coach 'show no remorse'

A FORMER youth footballer abused by Barry Bennell has told a court the ex-coach showed no remorse.

A court heard that the 64-year-old entered guilty pleas to charges of abuse against the former Crewe Alexandra schoolboy player in 1997, but denies more serious allegations.

Bennell, who has since changed his name to Richard Jones (above), appeared in Liverpool Crown Court via video-link on a screen which faced the witness box.

The complainant said: "Him, smirking on that screen, denying everything. He's shown no remorse, ever."

The court heard the victim told police in 1997 he had been abused by Bennell on about 20 occasions but estimated it was nearer 100 and added that Bennell had forced him to perform oral sex and had raped him.

Bennell denies indecent assault, buggery and attempted buggery against 11 complainants between 1979 and 1990.

Facebook sued over OAP killing

THE family of an OAP whose shooting death was recorded and shared on Facebook is suing the social media company for failing to notify authorities about threats posted by the gunman.

The wrongful death lawsuit filed over the killing of Robert Godwin Sr, 74, last April accuses Facebook of negligence because it has extensive data-mining capabilities, but did not catch and report the gunman's threats of violence before the shooting.

A lawyer for Facebook did not address those specific allegations, but expressed sympathy for Mr Godwin's family and noted that content violating Facebook's policies is removed when users report it.

Steve Stephens, 37, shared video of his shooting Mr Godwin along a Cleveland, Ohio, street. He killed himself two days later after a police chase.

The boobs Ronaldo had his eye on!

SENT OFF: Ronaldo's messages to Rhian led Oliver (below) to tackle him

...UNTIL CORRIE DOC LOVER WARNED HIM OFF

THESE are the boobs of glamour girl Rhian Sugden which caught the eye of footie ace Cristiano Ronaldo.

The 31-year-old blonde bombshell was allegedly bombarded with saucy text messages from the Portugal and Real Madrid star.

They became friends after meeting in London when he played for Manchester United – but it's reported he's been barraging her with flirty messages since leaving for Real in 2009.

Now Rhian's miffed fiancé Oliver Mellor, 36, has allegedly sent Ronaldo a message warning the 32-year-old off his woman.

Weird

According to reports, the footballer texted Rhian saying: "I will call in one hour if you send a number be private number. Im at my hotel (sic)."

She allegedly replied: "I'm just about to pick my fella up from work and then we are going for drinks. I don't think he'd approve of me talking to you at 11pm."

Once Oliver, who played Dr Matt Carter in Coronation Street, messaged the Portuguese star, he reportedly stopped his barrage of messages and has since left Rhian alone.

By BECCA STUBBS
??l@sundaysport.co.uk

A source claimed: "Ronaldo bombards Rhian with messages periodically. They're friendly enough, but sometimes turn a bit weird.

"She's mentioned several times that she has a fiancé, but he doesn't seem to take notice.

"In the end, Oliver found out and sent Ronaldo a polite message asking him to back off. Since then Ronaldo has deleted the conversations."

Rhian first came to the forefront when she went public with several racy messages sent by married TV presenter Vernon Kay in 2010.

A close friend of Carla's said: "Tyga treated her well and she really liked being with him.

"But she couldn't get serious with him because he was doing what he wants.

Although Carla isn't the only stunna who's tried to tame the Tyga, with reality A-lister Kylie Jenner falling in love with the rapper.

JUNGLE REBEKAH IN AWARDS BUST-UP

FLASHING STORM: Rebekah

By BECCA STUBBS
becca@sundaysport.co.uk

REALITY TV babes Rebekah Vardy and Sarah Harding reportedly had an almighty ROW at the glamorous National Television Awards.

They both arrived looking stunning but were later rumoured to be scrapping after Sarah, 36, thought Becky, 35, was snapping photos of her on the floor.

Hours after the glitzy bash was aired on ITV, the pair allegedly 'came to blows' at an after party at London's O2 arena.

According to sources at the party, Celebrity Big Brother winner Sarah accused I'm A Celebrity... Get Me Out Of Here! babe Becky of 'taking sneaky pictures' of her.

It reportedly sparked a 'heated' row between the pair and caused a 'huge scene' at the otherwise classy event.

Sources claimed Sarah had dropped her bag – and when she bent down to pick it up off the floor, she saw a camera flash and Becky standing nearby with her phone in her hand.

Girls Aloud Sarah's fury at WAG's pics

Scrambling

It's believed the former Girls Aloud beauty saw red and accused mum-of-four Rebekah of taking sly pictures of her while she was scrambling around collecting her things.

Insiders said: "Rebekah couldn't believe the insinuation and angrily insisted she hadn't even been using her phone.

"A few of their friends had to step in and intervene because they were getting really heated with one another – it caused a huge scene."

They added that the situation was then cleared up before the row could escalate even further.

But it's believed the bust-up has left a sour taste in both of their mouths.

Susanna: Piers has freed me!

TELLY presenter Susanna Reid says co-host Piers Morgan has UNLEASHED her and transformed the way she appears on screen.

Susanna, 47, fronts ITV's flagship morning show Good Morning Britain alongside the controversial Piers, 52, but she reckons he's brought out the best in her.

She jumped ship from BBC to ITV and says Piers has been working hard to 'train the BBC out of her' by encouraging her to be more opinionated.

The busty brunette (above) said: "He told me that after 20 years at the BBC, I can't be this unopinionated any more.

"So I maintain my political neutrality – how I vote, whether I vote, my particular views on things.

"But on other matters, for instance feminism, I've unleashed my opinions.

"Piers has certainly helped me shed that fear about how I'm going to be judged. He's unleashed me."

TEACHER'S SEX TOY ROMP WITH TEEN PUPIL

And she sent nude selfies to 3 boys

A FEMALE teacher has been charged with having sex with a teenage student and sending nude selfies to three boys.

Amanda Schweitzer, 38, had the charges brought against her after one of the boy's parents complained.

The married mother-of-two allegedly had sex with one boy on more than one occasion, exchanged nude images and is charged with producing child pornography.

She has also been charged with kidnapping, statutory rape and sodomy.

By WENDY THOMAS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

"She told him he was hot and that she wanted him," a detective wrote in a report of the case.

Images

Cops were called when a mother alerted North Middle School in Missouri that Schweitzer had sent nude images of herself to her son – one involving a sex toy.

The boy, then aged 13, came forward the day after having sex with Schweitzer.

He claimed she had even picked him up from a relative's house when he was absent from school to have sex.

He told police that the pair had sex in her car by the river.

She touched him and performed a sex act on him followed by full sex, investigators were told.

The police report said she also asked the boy to send her photos of himself.

Schweitzer will face a trial in April. If convicted, she could face life in prison.

Eva L: I love being tied up for sex!

SAUCY SCENES: Eva

STUNNING actress Eva Longoria said she is a huge fan of BDSM and loves being a SUBMISSIVE in the bedroom.

Eva, 42, shot to fame as saucy Gabrielle Solis in Desperate Housewives.

And her character's kinky behaviour seems to have had a lasting effect on the star.

With the third and final movie of the Fifty Shades of Grey franchise hitting screens just in time for Valentine's Day, Eva admitted she's a fan of the films.

Seduced

Revealing her own bedroom habits, the exotic beauty said: "I'm not averse to being tied up with silk scarves.

"I like a man to take charge. There's something very sexy about being submissive."

Eva has clearly been putting in bedroom practice with husband Jose Baston, 49, as the couple are expecting their first child.

In her saucy sitcom Desperate Housewives, her character Gabrielle seduced the gardener and began a steamy affair with the green-fingered fella.

Throughout her eight series on the show, Eva became a fan favourite and was shown in plenty of sex scenes.

She's seen bonking on a dining room table, in the bath and in a host of different bedrooms.

Brunette beauty Eva was previously married to basketball player Tony Parker, 35, before they divorced in 2010.

£50m coke haul on jet

FIVE men have been arrested after half a ton of cocaine worth over £50million was discovered in a private jet.

Border Force officers found the Class A drug after searching an aircraft that flew into the UK from Bogota in Colombia on Monday.

Two Britons, two Spaniards and an Italian were held on suspicion of drug smuggling after the twin-engined jet landed at Farnborough Airport in Hampshire.

The Border Force said that the drug was hidden in 15 suitcases that were found on board.

The Force's Mike Stepney said: "Officers became suspicious and searched the aircraft and their luggage. When opened, each case was found to contain up to 37 tape wrapped packages weighing approximately one kilo each. One of these was pierced and a white powder exposed which tested positive for cocaine."

Three properties in Bournemouth, Dorset, were also searched by the National Crime Agency and computers and phones taken away for examination.

The NCA's Siobhan Micklethwaite said: "This is a major seizure of cocaine. We estimate that once cut and sold it would have had a potential value of £50 million."

'Nutella riots' probe spreads

FRAUD watchdogs are probing a promotional campaign for Nutella that prompted 'Nutella Riots' in French supermarkets.

Intermarché drew big crowds at stores last week by selling the chocolate and hazelnut spread at 70 per cent below the regular price.

Video circulated online of ensuing scuffles and fights breaking out in some stores drew questions from the authorities.

Nutella manufacturer Ferrero distanced itself from the issue, saying that Intermarché is entirely responsible for the mayhem.

RANDY COUPLE'S ORAL SEX ROMP ON FLIGHT

MILE HIGH TRY: Tyler Boehm and Teresa Kohn

A COUPLE were arrested for having ORAL SEX on a flight.

Teresa Kohn, 43, and Tyler Boehm, 41, were escorted off the plane in handcuffs and charged with engaging in gross lewdness or lascivious behaviour.

Passengers witnessed Kohn appearing to perform oral sex on Boehm, who covered her head with a blanket.

A woman seated behind the couple said the act went on for five to 10 minutes.

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Blanket

Kohn denied the claims to police, saying her head was under the blanket for just two seconds.

She also said that she and Boehm were just joking around about joining the mile high club.

But fellow passenger Ronda Albers said: "A joke? Not from what I was seeing. I say that because the movement of the blanket made it pretty clear what was going on."

Another passenger, Jenney Huschka, said the couple were kissing each other throughout the flight and that Kohn "was touching" Boehm "all over", adding: "It was non-stop."

When a flight attendant took away the blanket, Kohn threatened to file a complaint, said Ms Huschka.

She claims Kohn yelled: "I'm going to have your jobs, and I'm going to get free tickets."

After being stopped, Albers said Boehm did "the whole leaning back to zip his pants up thing" and that Kohn's hair was full of static that she tried to pat down.

Even before the plane took off from Las Vegas for Minneapolis, Kohn was reportedly acting "belligerent towards the flight attendants" and demanding drink, police said.

Day-long lock-in led to prison riot

A BAN on smoking and a staff shortage led to a prison riot with inmates causing "thousands of pounds worth of damage", a court has heard.

Luke Needham, 30, Andrew Alford, 41, and Deno Harrison, 23, are on trial charged with prison mutiny at HMP Erlestoke (right) in Wiltshire.

Rob Welling, prosecuting, said that tensions rose on the weekend of June 11 and 12, 2016, after the prisoners were ordered to remain in their cells for the day because of a shortage of prison staff.

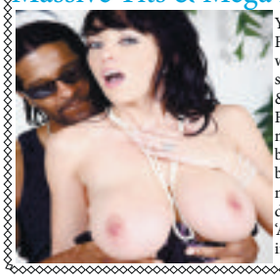

He said: "As you can imagine it caused tensions to rise among prisoners as it was a very unpopular move."

Mr Welling said Needham then set fire to his cell and flooded it before kicking open his wooden cell door and helping other prisoners to escape their rooms.

The trial at Winchester Crown Court continues.

Rihanna to marry Saudi billionaire

POP babe Rihanna is set to MARRY her billionaire boyfriend Hassan Jameel – and the Saudi Arabian fella couldn't be happier.

Rihanna, 29, has been dating the Saudi businessman for the past year and the pair sparked rumours of an engagement over Christmas when Riri was spotted wearing a huge sparkler.

Pals of the Barbados-born beauty say she's more than ready to tie the knot with her wealthy fella.

A source said she craves the love and security Hassan can provide and claimed: "Marrying a Saudi billionaire promises that. He has promised her a level of security nobody else can. He has the sort of wealth and standing that make for solidarity."

However, rumours of Rihanna's wedding have also caught the attention of Saudi leader Mohammed Bin Salman who is trying to revamp his country to appeal to the world.

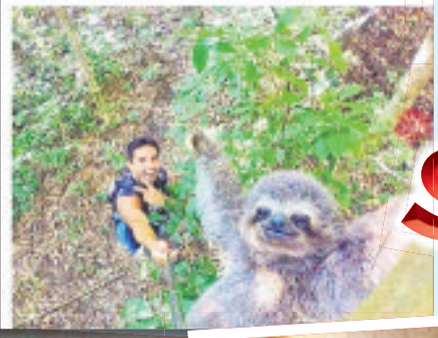

The source added: "Saudi Arabia is opening up. Rihanna could help relaunch the country."

STRICTLY CHOP FOR MOUTHY BRENDAN

CLASH: Head judge Shirley

BRENDAN Cole choked back tears yesterday as he revealed he has been dropped from Strictly Come Dancing.

The professional dancer, who is expecting his second child and who joined the show at its launch in 2004, said he was not part of the "vision" for the future of the BBC One show.

Brendan has famously sparred with the Strictly judges over the years, and clashed with new head judge Shirley Ballas in the last series,calling her out on her decisions.

The 41-year-old joked on ITV show Lorraine: "Nobody will argue with the judges. I don't know who I'm going to hand the baton to."

Brendan, who won the first series with Natasha Kaplinsky, said he had not been able make "much of a noise" on the show in the last five years because his partners had not had a lot of dance experience.

Emotional

The New Zealand-born star, who with Anton Du Beke was the only professional dancer from the show's inception, revealed: "It's hard to talk about. The BBC haven't renewed my contract. They made an editorial decision to not have me back on the show. I'm in shock. I'm quite emotional."

He said he had enjoyed "15 incredible series".

But the "disappointed" dancer admitted: "It's very hard to talk about. It's just a recent decision, I've always known this day will come. It's an editorial decision. I'll never know the ins and outs. I have my strong views.

"I'll miss Strictly. However, I am available for weddings, funerals and bar mitzvahs."

SACKED: Brendan Cole

OJ'S £100K DNA TEST ON THE KARDS!

NOT ME: Simpson denies fling with Khloe's mum

Is he Khloe's dad?

EX-JAILBIRD O.J. Simpson has allegedly been offered £100,000 to do a LIVE DNA test on reality telly show Keeping Up With The Kardashians.

Rumours have been rife for years that Khloe Kardashian, 33, is the daughter of 70-year-old Simpson.

And now the family have offered him the cash tempter to put an end to the gossip.

Simpson's lawyer Malcolm LaVergne said he was approached by a producer of the family's reality show while Simpson was still behind bars.

He said: "(the producer) said that Kris (Jenner) had given her blessing for the show to have Mr Simpson do a paternity test with Khloe.

"I was told that having the results of the paternity test shown on TV would be the highest-rated Kardashian show of all time."

Fallen sports icon Simpson was released from prison in October after serving nine years of his 33-year sentence for kidnapping and armed robbery.

He has always denied that he is Khloe's dad and has reportedly refused the Kardashians' mega money deal.

His attorney added: "He still says 'hell, no!' to it. He told me that he had never been inappropriate with Kris."

Khloe has also refused several requests to take a DNA test despite Kris, 62, admitting to cheating on her first husband, Robert.

A close pal of Khloe said: "Her mom keeps pushing her and O.J to take the test in a shameless effort to boost ratings."

Tallia's to ditch boys for a man

SCOTTISH singer Tallia Storm slammed Brooklyn Beckham and says she's now looking for a real man.

Tallia, 19, dated 18-year-old Brooklyn for a year and a half but claimed their relationship ended when he "messed" her around.

She is now set to appear on E4 dating show Celebs Go Dating and says she's looking for the complete opposite of Brooklyn.

She said: "I learnt that I'm definitely looking for a man now. I've always gone for boys, but I want a tall, dark, handsome man.

"I want to prove to people that I'm so much more than Brooklyn Beckham's ex.

"We'd go to Covent Garden and we'd have a security guard with us. I didn't realise at the time but now I don't want that. I'd rather find someone the complete opposite of that.

"I'm more attracted to someone ambitious. Someone who's worked their way up and is self-made."

Sir Ken gets his freedom

SIR Kenneth Branagh has said he is humbled to receive the freedom of his native Belfast.

The film director and actor receives the honour after leaving the city aged nine. He played a central role in the 1980s 'Billy' plays which portrayed a Protestant working-class family in Belfast.

Sir Kenneth (above) said he had been shaped by Belfast and added: "It is very humbling and frankly amazing to follow in the footsteps of so many extraordinary people including very fine artists and particularly, and especially last year, the nurses of Belfast."

WITH lighter nights on the way and spring just around the corner, plenty of couples might be looking to spice up their sex lives this year.

And we've got the hottest top tips on how to have the ideal OUTDOOR SHAGGING session later this year.

For those who enjoy a bit of risk, romping outdoors can give you an extra thrill – but some might be too nervous to take their fantasy any further.

But follow these top five tips from sex expert Tatiana Hardacre, who loves to be at one with nature, and you'll have the perfect outdoor bonk.

BE PREPARED

Tatiana said: "Taking your sex life outside might be a spontaneous thing for most couples but it is best to plan ahead.

"Taking a few things along for the ride can make things way more comfortable for you both – a thin blanket to lay down on and perhaps a towel to clean up after is a good idea."

WATCH OUT FOR HAZARDS

Nothing says mood-kill like getting stung by plants or creepy crawlies and learning to identify plants which can cause stings could be a good idea.

No one wants to go home with nettle stings in their nether regions.

By BECCA STUBBS becca@sundaysport.co.uk

DRESS FOR SUCCESS

Knowing what to wear for easy access but still looking sexy is tricky but Tatiana has this sound advice: "Go commando, it's one less layer in your way!

"A nice summer dress makes it easy for a fella to bend a girl over discreetly, while a loose pair of shorts that can be whipped down when things get heated always help."

DON'T BE IN PLAIN SIGHT

While the thought of being watched may turn you on even more, it's important not to be caught.

Public sex isn't illegal in the UK but you can face charges for indecent exposure if you are seen by members of the public.

So make sure you're slightly off the beaten track.

KEEP THINGS QUIET

Tatiana said: "Although you might scream in pleasure at home, it's not advised when you're outdoors as it can easily give the game away!

"Stick to quiet moaning and whispered dirty talk and it will not only be sexier for both of you but you're less likely to get caught out."

We asked three Sport stunnas what they thought of outdoor shagging…

Stephanie Sapphire says...

"LOADS of people go for a shag in the woods or just in their garden, but I love sex on the beach.

The heat gets me going and it's easy to get jiggy behind a big umbrella!"

Alice Bennett says...

"IT'S a little cold at the minute to go outside but I've got a list of places I want to bonk in – I'd love to have sex in a swimming pool with no one knowing what was going on."

Hot tips on how to enjoy the perfect outside bonk

Polly Anderson says...

"SEX outside turns me on no end, I'm always at it on my apartment balcony with my toys or a lucky bloke – and I'm sure the fella who lives across the road wouldn't mind paying me a visit!"

#SEX HEALTH

'O' yes! The 'Big O' just gets better with age

By BECCA STUBBS
becca@sundaysport.co.uk

IT'S often thought that people's twenties are their sexual peak – but that is definitely not the case for women.

New research reveals 'the older the better' for women, as it's been proven that orgasms only get better with age.

The study, by Natural Cycles, quizzed around 2,600 women about their orgasms and found that those over the age of 36 had the perfect climax.

Natural Cycles, the world's first app to be certified as a contraception, surveyed the women using the standardised McCoy Female Sexuality Questionnaire (MFSQ) methodology.

They divided the women into groups – younger (below 23), middle (23-36) and older (36 and over) – and found that orgasms, attractiveness and most enjoyable sex improved in the older group.

Although experts claim that is more down to having confidence in their bedroom abilities rather than the age of the women.

Women in their late 30s and above were most confident in their own skin, scoring 10 per cent higher than the middle age group, who were the least happy with how they looked.

Enjoyable

The youngest age group scored in the middle of the two for how attractive they felt but scored the lowest when asked about how often they achieve orgasm.

Over half the women in the older age group (58 per cent) said they had the most enjoyable orgasms and the greatest number of orgasms.

Those in the older age group scored 10% higher than the younger age group when discussing the 'big O' and 5% higher than the middle age group.

Life was definitely better between the sheets for the older age group too.

A huge 86% of them said they had experienced an enjoyable shagging session over the last four weeks compared with 76% in the middle age group.

Sport babe Siri Phillips said: "I was wondering when my orgasms were going to get better!

"I might even go on the hunt for an older, experienced bloke, so he can show me EXACTLY why the older women are enjoying sex more than girls my age!"

#MY SEX FANTASY

‘I love to touch myself while a bloke watches...it’s a real thrill’

By WENDY THOMAS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

SAUCY Anastasia Devine has revealed that when it comes to nookie time she loves TOUCHING herself in front of a bloke.

We asked her all about her wildest sexual fantasy and she said she loves masturbating while a guy watches.

The 33-year-old, who boasts 36D palm stretchers, said she enjoys feeling uninhibited and finds men find that a huge turn on too.

Anastasia, from Croydon, south London, said: “I used to be shy about playing with myself in front of a guy. I once had a boyfriend who was always asking me to do it, but I didn’t feel comfortable then.

“Then one night when I’d had a few drinks I took the plunge – and he was so turned on by it and I was too and I had the best orgasm.

Satisfied

“Now I love doing it and I think it’s a really powerful thing. Nothing is sexier than a woman having confidence in the bedroom.

“I think it also relieves the pressure from the bloke having to make you come.

“Of course a guy should make sure you’re satisfied. But us ladies do take some working up to get there, so it’s nice to give him a free pass now and again.

“And taking the matter into your own hands – literally – guarantees you an orgasm! A woman knows her own body and can often get there quicker.

“Of course I love the touch of a man, nothing beats that. But I love rubbing my clit while being banged doggy-style until I come!”

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Kelly,

I WAS at my local swimming pool the other day when I bumped into this busty blonde. I was doing the backstroke and she was doing the butterfly.

I apologised and we got chatting. I couldn't take my eyes off her massive tits and she reached down and gave my throbbing cock a squeeze before leading me to the deep end.

The pool was deserted and she asked me to give her one. I eased her swimsuit to the side and knobbed her in front of the "no petting" sign.

We were at it for a good five minutes and just about managed to avoid being caught by the lifeguard.

She now wants to meet on a regular basis for some pool sex. I'm not sure, as I think we could get caught.

What should I do?

TF, Hants

Kelly says...
JUST keep your eyes peeled as you do your lengths while slipping her a length.

Dear Kelly,

I'VE only ever had a passing interest in computers until I saw an ad for courses at my community centre and decided to go along to try to get some experience that would help me get a new job.

I'd expected the tutor to be a nerdy, bespectacled boffin – but I was amazed to find that she was a brunette who favoured short, tight skirts and white blouses.

I made slow progress because I was transfixed by her body rather than my screen.

I also started having problems with my mouse – the one in my trousers, that is. It swelled at the merest sight of her sexy stocking tops.

She tried to encourage me and we stayed behind after lessons, where she played with my mouse until it was a rampant rabbit.

But when I tried to shag her, my rabbit turned into a mouse again. She said I was lacking in RAM.

Is that a technical term, as I didn't like to ask her?

I gave uni stunna full marks for her brilliant dirty work

Dear Kelly,

MY neighbour's daughter is 19, with a great body and she has always been very flirty with me despite me being twice her age.

Last month she came to see me and asked for help with her university music assignment.

She looked really hot in a short skirt and low-cut top. After an hour, she said she'd had enough of studying for the day and asked if I wanted to do anything else.

It seemed like an obvious come-on and she suddenly threw her arms around my neck and kissed me full on the lips – slipping her tongue in too.

Then her hand went down to my groin to unzip my flies and in seconds she was on her knees with my swollen cock in her gob.

Well, I didn't last long and soon shot my load down her throat – and she swallowed the lot, the dirty little cow!

So I pushed her back on the couch and licked her sweet fanny.

I was soon rock-hard again and I flipped her over and gave her a proper seeing-to, doggy-style.

She's been back since for more of the same, but her dad's a bit of a nutter and I'm scared he'll find out and batter me.

What should I do?

ML, Cheshire

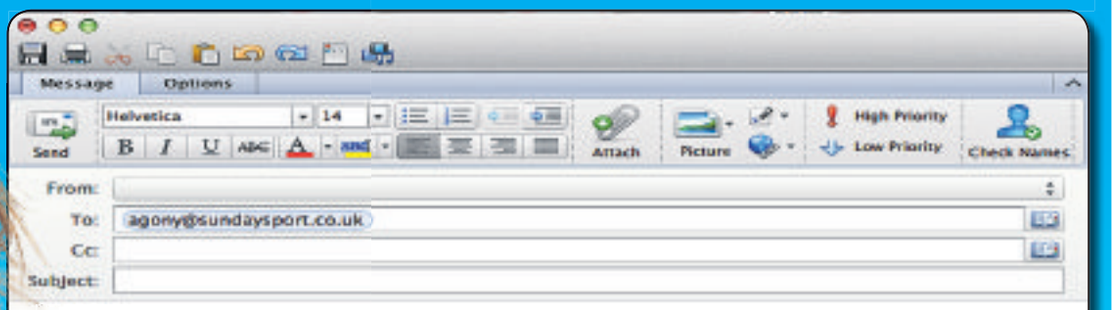

Kelly says...

MAKE sure he doesn't find out. Or move house!

AGONY IS BROUGHT TO YOU IN ASSOCIATION

WELCOME to the World famous Sport Agony page! No other newspaper's agony aunts can offer the level of advice – or experience – than our own Agony Angels! This week KELLY MCGREGOR has been reading through your letters. And here's her advice for you...

Lesbo pals fancied a change – my cock!

Dear Kelly,

I'M 36 and I split up with my wife last year. I moved into a new home and got to know my neighbours.

They were really nice people and the proud parents of a lovely 19-year-old daughter who knocked about with her equally gorgeous pal, who is 18.

Last week I was having a bath when the doorbell rang and I had to answer it with a towel wrapped around my private parts.

I was shocked when I saw it was the two girls and even more curious when they asked me to go get them a drink.

Sucking

They were dressed in mini-skirts and low-cut tops that showed off their lovely tits.

I couldn't take my eyes off them and one of the girls suddenly bent down and yanked my towel off and said: "So you like what you see then?"

In an instant she was down on her knees in front of me and wrapped her lips around my rock-hard cock, sucking on it while the other girl pulled her G-string off and started to lick her pal's clit.

Then they swapped positions and the other one got my knob in her mouth and her pal's tongue up her fanny.

They told me to lie back and one of them straddled me and eased her hot, wet pussy down on my throbbing length.

She started to go like the clappers, bouncing up and down on my shaft as her tits swung about wildly.

The other girl then knelt over my face and slowly squatted down, separating her plump fanny lips so I could get my tongue up her slit.

After she came over my face she got up and knelt on all fours and demanded: "I want to be fked doggy-style."

So I slipped my throbbing dick deep into her and kept pumping until she had a shuddering orgasm.

The other girl went round the front and pulled her fanny open and let her mate get her nose in. She also had one hell of an orgasm.

Then it was the other girl's turn to demand a good fking and I was only too happy to oblige.

She lay on her back and I pushed her legs over her shoulders before ramming in my cock and giving her a hard and fast pounding.

They say they are lesbians and only have cock when they fancy a change and I fit the bill.

Should I believe them?

KP, Cheshire

Kelly says...

WHY not? Give it to them whenever they want it.

Party host fed me a nine-inch treat

Dear Kelly,

I WENT to a neighbour's party a few weeks ago with my husband. We're in our mid-20s and I was wearing a micromini and heels.

The neighbours are in their 40s. The woman is a bit of a bag, but her fella is a right charmer who couldn't take his eyes off me.

As the party wound down, my sloshed hubby was out of the game, unconscious in a corner.

The old boy helped get my fella back to ours, then told me I looked gorgeous.

I felt very horny and he had a large bulge in his trousers, so I pulled down his zip and out it sprang – huge, thick and rock-hard.

I impaled myself on his nine-incher and slid up and down in ecstasy. I came three times before he shot his load.

I sucked him back to hardness and lay back on the sofa. He bent my legs back to my chest and licked my fanny before easing his cock all the way in.

He banged away for an age, grabbing my tits and telling me I was a dirty little whore.

A few days later, he came round and screwed me in every hole. I had six orgasms.

Afterwards, he told me that he's found a new place to live and wants to leave his wife and wants me to move in with him.

I'm tempted because the sex with him is fantastic, but is he too old for me?

BD, Glasgow

Kelly says...

IT'S a big decision. The age gap could become a problem. Why not just see him on the side?

Dear Kelly,

I'M a mature student at college and I've been getting quite a lot of attention from some of the younger females on my course recently.

Even though I'm an ugly bald bastard with no personality, these babes are a bit naive and are like putty in my hands.

There's one in particular who I've boned a couple of times. She's 21 and very slim with long, dark hair and a cracking rack on her.

She started coming on to me after we'd both been extras in a student film.

I took her home one night after we'd been to a coffee house and after the usual "come in for a nightcap" charade, she stripped off and gave me a frantic tit-wank.

Then I pumped her from behind before she rode me and I even managed the slightly tricky "wheelbarrow" position before we orgasmed.

A couple of days later I noticed some of her mates giggling as I walked past them.

Apparently, she told them I was a lovegod and now they ALL want me.

Should I go for it?

AP, north London

Kelly says...

IF they're up for it, get stuck in. Weird-looking fellas like you need to grab rare opportunities with both hands.

Poms will blow up at World Cup says Smithy

ENGLAND TACTICS ALL WRONG EVEN THOUGH THEY WON 4-1

WISHFUL THINKING: Steve Smith

AUSTRALIA skipper Steve Smith believes England will come unstuck at next year's World Cup.

By NED TRUEMAN

The Three Lions have just smashed the Baggy Green's 4-1 in the ODI series down under.

England have been a revelation in the short-format game thanks to their aggressive batting from the very first ball.

That has seen them regularly top 300 and transformed their chances of lifting the 50-over World Cup for the first time. Those tactics certainly worked against an Aussie side that looks well off the pace once the whites are put away.

But Smith thinks Eoin Morgan's boys will crack under the pressure when the World Cup rolls around.

He said: "England have played a different brand of cricket where they go really hard the whole time.

"That can be risky as well at times, particularly in big tournaments.

"You might get yourselves to the semi-finals or something but you can have those days where you get bowled out for 150."

But Smith has to admit that England are a lot closer to getting the formula right than his own side.

Aggressive

He added: "There are a few things to think about in regards to one-day cricket and the way we want to play.

"We just haven't been good enough, to be honest, the last couple of weeks and the last year.

"England are clear in the way they play.

"They're all very aggressive and go out there and take the game on from ball one. I don't think our players aren't clear, we're just not executing it and making the right decisions at key times.

"If we get those decisions right, and guys are smarter in the way they play in the middle, we'll turn things around."

Aussie coach Trevor Hohns knows the pressure will be intense in the World Cup with the English home crowd getting right behind the Three Lions.

He wants to make sure the Aussies are not undercooked going into the tournament.

Hohns said: "In our winter here we go to play five one-dayers against England again, so we will be trying at that stage to get a unit together that hopefully can play together and stay together leading into the World Cup.

"We need to sit down and have a look at everything.

"We don't need to have a national inquiry every time we lose a series, but we're clearly not playing well at the moment, so yes we will be assessing how we play the game and secondly what players are required to play the way we want to play."

CONFIDENT: Bayliss

Bayliss: We must be favourites for big one

ENGLAND coach Trevor Bayliss believes the Three Lions are favourites to win the 2019 World Cup.

As well as having vital home advantage, Eoin Morgan's men have also been blowing their rivals away in the one-day game.

They have just spanked the Aussies 4-1 on their own turf despite being hit by injuries to key bowlers.

In all, England lost just three of the 22 one-dayers in the past year.

Bayliss said: "The way we have been playing one-day cricket over the last few years and the way we continue to play, and obviously with the World Cup at home, we should be one of the favourites.

"Only time will tell how we handle that but, if we go in to all of the series between now and that World Cup thinking we are favourites, then that will be good practice for us and we will see how the players react."

England managed to beat the Aussies without key all-rounder Ben Stokes in the team.

He will be back in the fold this summer and gives the already strong team a welcome boost.

Toes

But Bayliss has warned the Durham man that he won't walk straight back into the team.

The coach added: "It is a good problem and he might not fit back in straight away.

"Everyone knows he is coming back and it keeps everyone on their toes trying to score runs and put their name forward to make sure they are not the ones who get pushed aside when he comes back.

"We have had a very stable team over the last couple of years.

"We have had one or two different guys coming in and the good thing is that we have got competition for spots.

"It is not just the 11. It is 14, 15, 16 guys that can come into the team and play a part. That's very healthy for the team."

And Bayliss says Morgan's place is no threat despite his iffy form with the bat.

He added: "The way this team is playing, he is at the forefront of that. He is the one that leads. He is a very important part of this team."

THE WINNING POST

I'm a winner Hunter

ALAN King sends WILLIAM HUNTER (NAP) down to Chelmsford the bookies have underestimated his chance.

By BEN MORGAN

After a couple of below par runs over jumps, I think it would be fair to say he is a better horse on the level.

If you scroll through his form you will see he has ran in some hot middle distance races through the summer which should stand him in good stead today.

After only having a few tries over this distance, he looks unexposed at this trip and could potentially find a bit more improvement.

The race doesn't look strong, as the likely favourite seems to have had his limitations exposed already and with that in mind I would have no qualms having a few quid each-way.

UNCLE ALASTAIR puts his Cheltenham credentials on the line up at Ayr.

Nicky Richards will be wanting to learn a bit more about his horse, hence the drop in trip. His two previous wins over hurdles have come over further on heavy ground which could suggest he is a stayer, but Richards obviously thinks he has enough pace to cope with two miles.

I believe the plan is to go to Cheltenham and this race will tell connections which race to aim for. With that said though, he won't have it all his own way today, as Bulkov, could be a potential fly in the ointment.

Bryony Frost is taking all the headlines at the moment as she continues to ride winners for leading trainer Paul Nicholls, but today she has the opportunity to ride a winner for her Father.

TRIPLE CHIEF has standout claims in Leicester's 3.25 especially when you factor in Bryony's claim.

It looks a relatively weak affair on paper and my selection's form looks to be strong enough in order to take this.

Another tricky handicap to round off proceedings at Leicester and the eye is drawn to Dark Invader, the mount of Richard Johnson, but I will take a punt on TACTICAL MANOEUVRE.

Alex Dunn's horse would have needed his comeback run at Exeter so you can ignore that run and focus on last season's run at the same course where he hacked up off a mark of 90.

Thomas Cheesman's claim almost takes him back down to that mark and I will hope for a similar performance.

BIG LOSS: Josh Adams

It's top of the crocks as Six Nations starts

RUGBY UNION

JOSH ADAMS will make his Wales debut on the wing against Scotland as the Six Nations starts in Cardiff on Saturday.

The Worcester man joins an incredible 10 Scarlets players in the starting 15. He comes in as more experience wing men Alex Cuthbert, Liam Williams and George North sit the game out.

Wales coach Warren Gatland has decided to play Rhys Patchell at fly-half, with Gareth Anscombe left on the bench.

The boss said: "We have been watching Josh closely, he is top try-scorer in the English Premiership and has been going well and we are excited for him.

"Both Rhys and Gareth have been training really well over the last couple of weeks.

Explosive

"It was a tough call between them, Rhys has started most of his games for the Scarlets at 10, we are really happy with his form and the combination with Gareth Davies at nine."

Ross Moriarty comes back into the side at number eight.

Gatland added: "We know what a quality player Ross is, it's great he is back and available and we are looking forward to seeing his explosive ball-carrying on Saturday.

"For this opening game, we looked at a lot of combinations, especially the front row. It is exciting to see Samson Lee back playing well and the familiarity of the Scarlets front row will be important."

BIG CALL: Warren Gatland

Scotland head to Cardiff with a couple of injury problems.

They are without lock Richie Gray with a calf problem and the Toulouse player has stayed in France for treatment.

Assistant coach Mike Blair said: "Richie wasn't involved in the autumn or the summer tour so it's a situation we have been able to handle in the past.

"Obviously he is a quality player and a guy we're really keen to see back and how he fits in but he also needs to get himself right.

"There's no point having him here if he's not 100%.

"When will he be back? Sooner rather than later but we can't put an exact time on it right now."

Gray's brother Jonny will play but there are problems up front with most of Scotland's first-choice forwards struggling with injury.

AY UP CHUCK... WELCOME TO CITY!

Laporte touches down in Manchester

NEW Manchester City defender Aymeric Laporte is ready to hit the ground running.

By ANDY MILLOM

Pep Guardiola will waste little time in throwing the £57million buy from Athletic Bilbao into the cut and thrust of the Premier League.

Tonight's clash with West Bromwich Albion may come a little too soon — but it won't be long before the France U21 international pulls on a blue shirt.

Guardiola said: "He's fit, he's been playing the last period.

"Of course he has to adapt because the Premier League is special in many senses.

"He is intelligent, he will read what is the situation.

"Even for English players, when they come into the Premier League it's always a little bit tough.

"We will be patient because he doesn't come for three months, he comes for five years."

City have acted to boost the middle of their defence as Vincent Kompany continues to struggle with staying fit.

Eliaquim Mangala doesn't look up to the job, meaning Guardiola has had to rely on John Stones and Nicolas Otamendi in the heart of his back four.

Excited

With so much other talent in the side, that hasn't really mattered — but 23-year-old Laporte is rated as one of Europe's best prospects in the position.

The only shock is that he's the club's record transfer, just edging past the £55m paid for Kevin De Bruyne last year.

His deal takes Pep's total spend on defenders to a staggering £190m since the end of last season.

Laporte is excited about the move, saying: "I am looking forward to working under manager Pep Guardiola and trying to help the club to achieve success.

"I am very happy to be here. City are a club with a lot of ambition and they are one of the best teams in Europe.

"It means a lot that the club have shown faith in me and I am excited to get started."

Guardiola has been chasing Laporte since 2016 when he opted to stay at Bilbao and get more game time. The City boss is delighted to finally get his man.

He said: "We are very aware of his skills. He is an experienced central defender, he is fast, he has the skills to help us. He is in the perfect age to help us.

Horror

"He's played since a young age in LaLiga so at a high level.

"He's strong in the air and fast. He's got good quality and we are delighted."

It's not all good news for Guardiola as he confirmed that Leroy Sane could miss up to two months with a leg injury.

The German flyer was hit by a horror tackle in the weekend FA Cup win at Cardiff City.

Bluebirds boss Neil Warnock initially tried to defend the challenge by Joe Bennett.

But even he has to admit it was a shocker, saying: "When I watched it live I thought it was a yellow card.

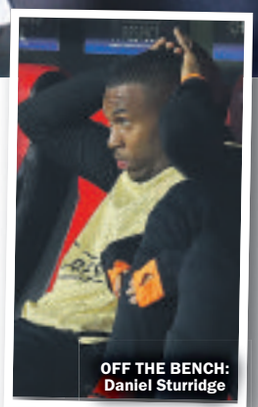

"I thought it was just a trip to stop the counter attack and it was a yellow because he's made no attempt to play the ball.

"I made my comments without seeing it back and I've come in for a bit of stick, but having watched it from the other angle for the first time I can't condone tackles like that.

"I was annoyed more because I thought Sane was going away from goal with a man covering him but I thought it was just cynical – looking at it back it's a bad tackle."

West Brom are hoping to build on their FA Cup win at Anfield.

They will give a debut to loan signing from Liverpool Daniel Sturridge — unless he gets injured between now and kick-off.

WANTED MAN: Morelos is in demand by a Chinese side

Money won't talk for Gers over Alfredo

RANGERS don't have to sell star striker Alfredo Morelos — despite a big-money bid from China.

The un-named team are in talks with the Glasgow giants and an offer of £10million is thought to be on the table.

That's a fortune in Scottish football and shows how well the 21-year-old Colombian has done at Ibrox this season.

Boss Graeme Murty is adamant that there's no "economic necessity" to let their top-scorer go. But the player will be keen as he'll be in for a massive pay rise if he heads east.

DIGGING IN: Murty

Rangers' former boss Pedro Caixinha paid HJK Helsinki £1m for the player who has scored 13 goals this season.

The club has struggled with debts but Murty is adamant that his hand will not be forced into a sale.

He said: "Talks are ongoing, they haven't met our valuation.

Positive

"We have to make a footballing decision based on whether we can resource someone of Alfredo's ability.

"I've not been told there is any economic necessity to move him away.

"It's about making sure we close the gap on Celtic.

"If we can push on by keeping him, then that's what we do.

"We have to safeguard the positive feeling around the club and the squad and make a solid footballing decision.

"I'm not going to allow a player to leave just because there are lots of zeros involved. Taking Alfredo out of our squad without a ready-made replacement to strengthen us, is not a decision I'm prepared to make."

BARGAIN BUY: Caixinha

Murty notes that the transfer window is closing today so there would be very little time to bring in a replacement.

He added: "At the moment we don't see any way to replace what Alfredo brings.

"Alfredo is top scorer, he is doing really well and has adjusted to our challenge, our club and our culture very well.

"We have to make sure everything Alfredo has as a target, we can show him he can accomplish here.

"If he wants to get into the Colombia squad, he can do it here. If he wants to be top goalscorer in the country, he can do it here.

"He does that by tearing up trees at this club, because he has a fantastic support, a wonderful stage to be on TV loads of times every month, to really showcase what he's about."

Alexis 6s for flying start

SORRY ARSENAL FANS: One last look at Sanchez in your colours!

THE big game in the Premier League is the visit of Manchester United to Wembley and a clash with a Spurs side who, once again, had to thank Harry Kane for getting them out of a hole at Rodney Parade Newport on Saturday.

SHOULD BE GOALS AT WEMBLEY

Spurs are 13/10 at BetVictor to keep the points with United and the draw both priced at 12/5.

Spurs have won their last two home league games against Manchester United but the Red Devils have won their last six at Wembley scoring at least twice in each of those games.

Harry Kane has currently scored 99 PL goals and the great Alan Shearer scored his 100th PL goal for Newcastle against United.

Kane is 31/10 with BetVictor to open the scoring and 20/23 to find the back of David de Gea's net at some stage during the 90 minutes.

One would imagine Alexis Sanchez (6/1 fgs at BetVictor) will make his Premier League debut at Wembley and the Chilean will become only the third player after Eric Cantona (1992/93) and Benito Carbone ((1999-2000) to score against Spurs for two teams in the same PL season after his goal at the Emirates back in November.

Spurs have a poor record against the Big Six and have picked up just three points from their five games against the other big six sides so far this term.

This is a big week for Mauricio Pochettino's side with a trip to Anfield to come on Sunday, but they have won their last two home league games against United and last won three on the spin back in 1966

I expect to see a hugely entertaining game, which could go either way, and the recommendation must be for the game to finish in a scoring draw at 18/5.

Newcastle entertain Burnley this evening without a win in their last seven home PL games and have failed to score in five of those fixtures. Joselu is the Magpies top league scorer with four and all of those goals have come at St James's Park.

Only Southampton (11) are on a longer winless streak than Burnley (7) in the league although the Clarets were able to rest at the weekend having been knocked out of the FA Cup at the Etihad in the third round.

Newcastle are 6/5 to end their barren league run at St James's Park with the Clarets 3s and the draw at 85/40.

Burnley had an excellent first half of the season, especially on their travels, but look vulnerable at present and I think the Magpies will win a low-scoring game.

★Leicester must pass a precautionary inspection at 7.45 on race-day but if the track passes the inspection I hope to see Du Soleil (1.45) improve for the step back up to two-and-a-half-miles despite having taken a 4lbs rise for finishing runner up over two miles here earlier in the month.

James Bowen takes off 3lbs, which largely negates the rise, however, and he gets the nod although the Venetia Williams yard – similar to Philip Hobbs – have had a fitful campaign to date.

Heavy ground also at Ayr and Hills Of Dubai (3.45) jumped very well on his chase debut when making all here over C&D earlier in the month and a 7lbs rise looks fair for Donald McCain's nine-year-old.

The selection was a winner of his sole point in his native Ireland and has only had six starts under rules. I will be disappointed if he is not able to defy his rise.

It is hard for any Bumper horse to defy a penalty but I was impressed with Sao Maxence's (4.20) C&D win last month and he can give weight for James Ewart and Conor O'Farrell.

The selection was fitted with a hood for his debut and beat an experienced filly of Nicky Richards and it should be noted that the third horse (Belle Amis) was beaten fifteen lengths here over Christmas but she improved to finish third in a Market Rasen listed contest earlier in the month.

Benitez still hoping to get deals done

Newcastle United v Burnley

Wednesday, 7.45pm kick-off

KENEDY is set for his Newcastle debut in their must-win clash with Burnley.

The Toon are flirting with relegation and boss Rafa Benitez has been frustrating in most of his transfer moves since the January window opened.

The one deal he has managed to do is to bring the Brazilian midfielder to St James's Park from Chelsea.

Benitez has not yet given up hope of getting more deals done before the window slams shut tonight.

He said: "We are working on names, as we have been working for more than one month on. We have a list. Still we have some time.

"We have an important game against Burnley and I want to concentrate on that. I will focus on the game."

Finished

As it stands there are more likely to be departures than arrivals at the Toon.

Benitez is adamant Mikel Merino won't be going to Athletic Bilbao but several clubs continue to chase Aleksandar Mitrovic.

The closest to getting a deal done appear to be Belgian side Anderlecht where talks are continuing.

Benitez added: "We have two or three players talking with different clubs. We can see if anything will happen, but it depends on players coming too. Nothing is finished yet with those deals, so we will see."

STRUGGLE: Rafa Benitez

Newcastle are on their worst Premier League run since 2009 with no wins in seven and five defeats in that run.

Burnley are still riding high in the table, although they have lost four on the spin since the start of the year.

Three of those were in the league and the Clarets have never lost four Premier matches in a row.

Boss Sean Dyche is also looking forward to the end of the window.

He said: "There are a couple of things that are possible but I don't think they're probable.

"You've got to be ready and flexible. It's not a no but not a probability.

"We've enough injuries to make us look at different possibilities. But we're not going to make signings for the sake of it. I believe in the players we've got."

CONTE LAYS DOWN THE LLOR

He wants Chelsea to chase Tottenham ace

CHELSEA are trying to get a last-gasp deal over the line for Tottenham striker Fernando Llorente.

It was thought that Spurs would refuse to sell the big Spaniard to a club rivalling them for a Champions League spot. But chairman Daniel Levy will reportedly let the 32-year-old go if the Blues cough up a big fee today.

Tottenham want a significant profit on the £14m they paid Swansea for the hitman who has made little impact in north London.

Chelsea are desperate to get the deal done and have also been chasing Arsenal beanpole Olivier Giroud after their move for Edin Dzeko collapsed over his contract demands.

Bridge boss Antonio Conte would prefer to get Llorente in as they worked together at Juventus before both men headed to the Premier League.

But whether the powers that be at Chelsea will let him spend in excess of £20m remains to be seen.

The Giroud deal gets more complicated by the minute! He won't go to Dortmund as part of Arsenal's move for Pierre-Emerick Aubameyang.

So the Germans want Chelsea hitman Michy Batshuayi instead.

Chelsea v Bournemouth

Wednesday, 7.45pm kick-off

And the Blues will only let him go if they can have Giroud — or get the Llorente deal done. It's all as clear as mud!

Whatever happens, Chelsea have problems in attack for their clash with Bournemouth.

Alvaro Morata and Willian are both ruled out as Conte's problems in attack persist.

The Spaniard has missed three games with suspension and a back problem that hasn't cleared up.

Willian has a hamstring strain and won't be risked, while David Luiz is also injured after picking up a knock in training earlier this week.

Relaxed

There is some better news with keeper Thibaut Courtois and Cesc Fabregas back and available for selection

Conte admits that the transfer talk in the past couple of weeks has been a distraction.

He said: "I ask my players to be focused on the game and our target to play a good game and get points. We will aim to win against Bournemouth.

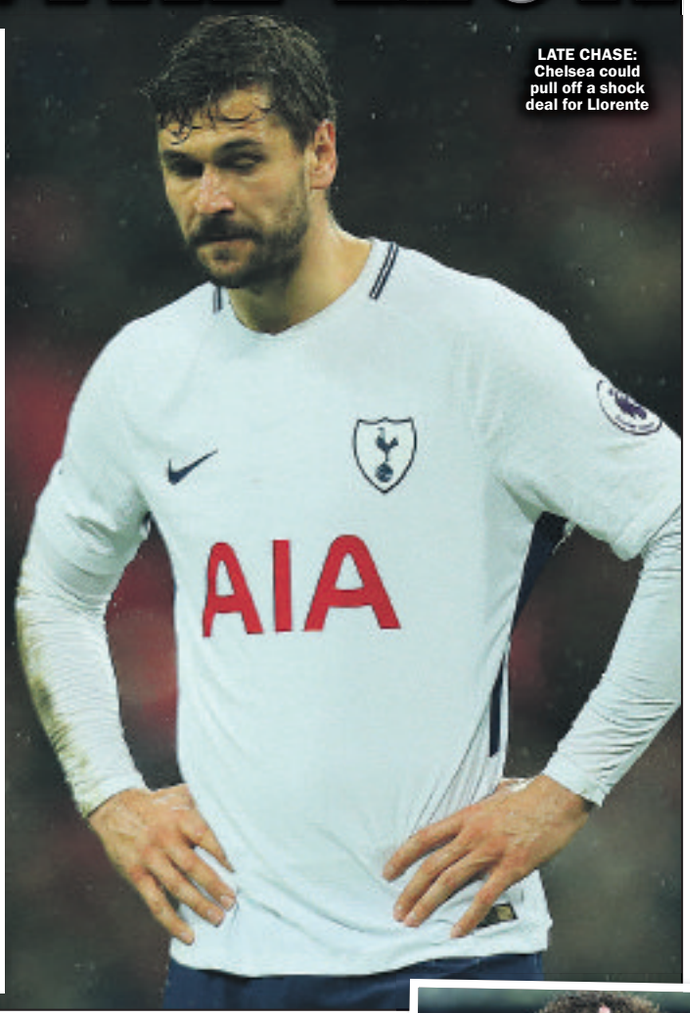

"I hope when we finish this transfer market we will be more relaxed and try to be focused on our work.

"We are to prepare for the game in the right way with these players we have.

"As you know very well I always say I would be happy in both cases if the club decides to add players but otherwise I am very happy to continue to work with the players because they show me every day great commitment."

DEAL: Paul Lambert

It's do or N'Diaye for struggling Potters

Stoke City v Watford

Wednesday, 8pm kick-off

STOKE have agreed a £15million fee with Galatasaray for Senegal midfielder Badou N'Diaye.

The Potters now face a race against time to get the deal done before the transfer window closes tonight.

The 27-year-old has snubbed a switch to Newcastle in favour of joining Paul Lambert's men.

There could be work permit problems because he hasn't played the required 60% of games for Senegal over the past two seasons.

He is a midfield battler who has played just 17 times for the Turks since arriving in August.

Both sides are desperate for a win tonight as they threaten to be sucked into the relegation dogfight.

The Hornets have a new boss too in Javi Gracia — and he's promising to sort out the problems at Vicarage Road.

They were knocked out of the cup by Southampton at the weekend as the players and fans clashed on the final whistle.

Garcia said: "I do not understand many things the fans sang. I can only do one thing and that is to try to make the team play better and get good results.

"This way I am sure the fans will be happier and all the problems, if there are problems, will disappear. It was not a good match. We need to improve many things."

KING COLE BACK FOR BLUES

SEAMUS Coleman is set for his long-awaited comeback for Everton against Leicester.

The full-back has not played in the first team since breaking his leg playing for Ireland last March.

He played an hour for the Under-23s last week and boss Sam Allardyce wants to get Coleman back in action.

The former England gaffer said: "He reminds me of the dedication that's needed in the game at all levels.

"When I've seen him, he's never been that miserable, he's not been moping around. All he's been enquiring about is, 'What can I do to get fit? What more can I do?'. That's a credit to him.

"Hopefully when he starts playing again he'll hit his top form as quickly as possible and make a big contribution for us.

"It may be a little time before he hits his top form but it's very good news for such an important player, and such an important character, to be back in the squad."

Allardyce has also been paying tribute to 20-year-old Jonjoe Kenny who has filled in for Coleman at the back. He assures the Scouser that he is still a big part of the squad.

He added: "If Seamus Coleman is fit, Seamus Coleman will probably play, but Jonjoe's done a fantastic job and will continue to do so.

"There's more and more players today who I think start to suffer from anxiety that may occur through the pressure that's put on them, but not Jonjoe.

"He's had one or two hiccups but has come back stronger, he gives everything he's got, and I think the experience will be taken on board and hopefully make him better for the future.

"Seamus may not be able to play every game between now and the end of the season so there's a fight for Jonjoe and competition for the two of them, which is what you want. We've got options.

"Jonjoe will be very disappointed to be left out, I know that.

"But he's done a terrific job and the two of them are there to get selected between now and the end of the season."

Leicester's main concern going into the game is keeping Riyad Mahrez.

Manchester City and Arsenal are being linked with last-gasp moves for the Algeria playmaker.

Leo ready to fight like a lion for Albion

Southampton v Brighton

Wednesday, 7.45pm kick-off

LEO Ulloa can't wait to pull on a Brighton shirt again after his loan move from Leicester.

The striker starred as the Albion almost won the Championship play-offs in 2013 and 2014.

He's delighted to get the chance to turn out for the Seagulls in the top flight and is determined to keep them in the promised land.

Ulloa has struggled to hold down a place at Leicester this term and is looking for a happy ending to the season for Chris Hughton's side.

The 31-year-old said: "I hope so, that we can finish happily at the end.

"The last two seasons were sad because we fought, we tried to give everything and to do everything but it wasn't enough.

"So I hope this time we can change things and the end is happy and we gain the objective, which is to stay in the Premier.

"First of all because we are here but secondly because this club deserves to be here a long time. I think Brighton as a club improved a lot in the last five, six, seven years since I first joined them.

CHANCE: Chris Hughton

"They continue to improve all the time and so it is important for the club to maintain this status for a long time and I hope they do."

PAL: Anthony Knockaert

And Ulloa is confident that Brighton have enough quality to beat the drop, especially in former Leicester team-mate Anthony Knockaert.

He added: "If I didn't believe that I'm not here. This group plays well and they have character.

"They create chances, they play football. Okay, you can lose but you play one way, you don't change every time.

"I believe Brighton can do this."

PREMIER LEAGUE PREVIEW

HAPPY JOSE'S UNITED FRONT

JOSE Mourinho says it's a "happy camp" at Old Trafford after a massive month.

By JOHN ANTHONY

The Red Devils travel to Wembley tonight ready to unleash new signing Alexis Sanchez on Tottenham.

And United are in brilliant form with five wins on the spin in 2018.

They seem to have shrugged off the sloppiness that was bringing about too many draws before Christmas.

Mourinho is excited about what Sanchez can bring to his team and can't wait to get stuck into Spurs in front of a packed national stadium.

He said: "We have managed to win every match in January, I think three Premier League matches and two cup matches, so five victories makes a happy camp.

"We are playing with a good balance. It is not easy to not concede goals because of the high quality of football in this country but scoring goals and winning matches is very important because we need points.

"We are playing well and we have deserved these results."

Mourinho knows it will be a challenge against Mauricio Pochettino's men — even if their form has dipped a little lately.

A strong side was almost dumped out of the FA Cup by League Two Newport County at the weekend.

Difficult

But they will be a different proposition when lining up against the Reds.

The Portugeezer added: "Spurs are one of the top teams in the country — not a title contender because they are too far away, but I say honestly they are a Champions League contender. They can reach that level.

"They have some of the best players in the country, a very good manager and are a very difficult opponent.

"It is a really big game for both teams.

"The difference between us and Spurs is seven or eight points, but the reality is they are a top team in terms of their quality and ambitions, and a team of our level, so it is a big match."

Mourinho is refusing to give up hope of catching noisy neighbours City — despite them sitting 12 points clear at the top.

He added: "It's hard. Last season was hard, this season is hard.

"Last season we gave up that fight when we felt it was going to be very difficult to do it, plus the injuries, plus the Europa League. But this season everybody is there."

Atmosphere

Mourinho admits that it's hard to think of Wembley as the home of a Premier League side.

Normally it's a neutral venue for cup finals so both teams have a similar number of fans, making for a rocking atmosphere.

The United boss has been at the ground for a Tottenham game already this season and admits it felt very different from normal.

He said: "I was at Wembley for Tottenham versus Chelsea and I had that feeling that Wembley is Spurs' home, because it was full of their supporters.

"I am used to going to Wembley when it is 50-50 with supporters, so it was the first time I went like that. It is an amazing stadium and one for us to enjoy."

United have most of their squad fit for what could be a pivotal game in the chase for the Champions League spots.

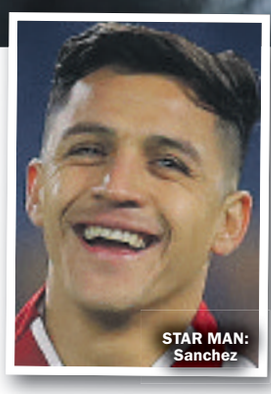

Only Zlatan Ibrahimovic and long-term absentee Eric Bailly will be on the sidelines.

Juan Mata is looking forward to playing alongside Sanchez — if he gets the chance.

Help

The Spaniard said: "His arrival is great news because a player of his level always raises the competition within the team and our competitiveness.

"He's a great player and I'm sure that he will help a lot."

STAR MAN: Sanchez

NARKY: Pochettino

Mo Po sounds Real interested in Madrid job

MAURICIO Pochettino is refusing to pour cold water on reports linking him with a move to Real Madrid this summer.

The Tottenham gaffer is thought to be top of the Spanish giants' shopping list should they give current gaffer Zinedine Zidane his marching orders.

The Galacticos are a shocking 19 points behind Barcelona in the league and have been dumped out of the cup by minnows. Unless the Frenchman wins the Champions League, his days at the Bernabeu look numbered.

Pochettino is used to being asked about Real — but this time he refused to give a straight answer when asked to rule out heading to Madrid.

He said: "We need to be focused on this game. I am focused on Tottenham, I am happy here, there are three more years on my contract. That is all."

Impact

Pochettino may not have his mind totally on the Manchester United game at Wembley as he's trying to get a big transfer deal over the line.

Paris St Germain attacked Lucas Moura has agreed to join the Londoners for £26million and the move is being finalised before the window closes tonight.

Mo Po refused to talk directly about the Brazilian but said: "When you sign a player you expect you are right and that the player is successful, having a massive impact on the team. There is always expectation."

DEAL: Lucas Moura

On the pitch, Spurs have been hit by a setback in defence. Toby Alderweireld had this game pencilled in for his comeback but that won't happy now.

Serge Aurier and Harry Winks are also out for the home side.

On a brighter note, Danny Rose is back in full training and is expected to play some part against the Red Devils.

Pochettino is trying to play down the important of the game, but doesn't sound convincing.

He said: "It is so important to win games, to be close and to have the possibility to fight to the end.

"I don't think the key to the top four is to win tomorrow or to win Sunday.

"But yes it is so important to put yourself in a good position in the table and in the end be there."

£60m Aubameyang jets in to Arsenal

PIERRE Emerick Aubameyang wants to seal his move to Arsenal today.

The Borussia Dortmund forward has touched down in London to finalise terms with Arsene Wenger's men.

The Germans have agreed a fee of around £60m for the Gabon hitman who is one of the hottest strikers on the continent.

By JOHN ANTHONY

The man himself is keen to get the move done — but Dortmund want a replacement lined up first.

The deal is expected to happen but could still get a little bit messy.

That's because Olivier Giroud has turned down the chance to join the Bundesliga side because he would prefer to stay in London and sign for Chelsea.

Then Dortmund can have Michy Batshuayi to fill their Aubameyang-shaped hole in attack.

With the window slamming shut at 11pm tonight, the saga cannot go on for much longer.

There's no going back to Borussia for Aubameyang now that he's fallen out with the club's passionate fans.

He has missed training and been dropped from the side — with supporters unfurling a giant banner slagging him off at the weekend.

That's despite him scoring 141 goals in 213 games for the club since 2013.
